

Master, Tug, Class I

WS-13
~~WDS-11~~JOB CONTROLS

1. Under general supervision, is in charge of a steam or diesel powered tug normally engaged in tending and supplying floating plant construction and maintenance units and collecting drift, wreckage and debris.
2. Receives oral and written assignments, with necessary information and is responsible for performing work according to directives, district regulations and marine or navigation rules and regulations. Work is spot checked or inspected upon completion for adequacy and compliance with applicable instructions.

MAJOR DUTIES

As Master of a Class I tug (65' or over), directs and supervises the work of mates, engineers, firemen, deckhands, cooks, etc., and is responsible for the entire operation.

1. Upon receipt of orders or assignment, performs duties relative to piloting boat and towing fuel, water and supply barges to and from floating plant. Sets and removes anchor of plant. Ties and anchors barges in storage when not in use. Transports personnel to and from plant as directed or assigned. Signals engineer, from pilot house, to start and stop engine and controls speed and direction of boat.
  2. Is responsible for the efficient operation of boat, safety and security of personnel, and for safe delivery of materials, supplies equipment, and personnel to designated points.
  3. Maintains daily log of operations and submits all required operating and administrative reports.
  4. Is responsible for proper mechanical repairs and maintenance of boat, including minor repairs, painting, good housekeeping, maintenance of quarters, properly prepared food, etc. Conducts safety meetings and has necessary life saving drills for adequate protection of crew. Maintains proper marine equipment aboard, such as fire, life saving, and first aid equipment.
  5. Is responsible for adequate mess and quarters supplies. Requisitions all necessary mess and maintenance supplies, including fuel, foods, tools, parts, paints, linens, etc.
  6. Is required to have pilot's license applicable for water in which operation is done.
- Performs other incidental duties as assigned.